Good afternoon, Clare, and to All Parties in this docket:

Please see Order No. 2005-226. The order directs a party to submit a redacted copy of the document, with all of the confidential information redacted out of it by the party submitting the material. In a separate envelope, clearly marked as confidential by the person submitting the material, a party may send the confidential information. It is important for the party to designate the information clearly as confidential and as exempt from disclosure as a public record. The information may be sent to the Commission by U.S. Mail, Federal Express or other appropriate carrier, or by hand delivery. Please review Order No. 2005-226 for a full understanding of the policy. The order is also attached to this email. Please feel free to contact the Clerk's Office with any questions.

Yours sincerely, Sharon Besley

Subject: [External] Documents Submitted Under Seal - Relating to Docket No. 2021-188-T

Good Morning, Sharon,

I am looking for information on how to submit a document under seal to the Commission.

The clerk I spoke with mentioned a confidential folder that may be available. Unfortunately, I cannot deliver the document in person as I am located in Charleston.

Any guidance you could provide would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,

Clare
